Questions 16 to 20

Read the passage below carefully and answer the question that follow.
 Baca petikan di bawah dan jawab soalan-soalan yang berikutnya.

Lemuel Gulliver was a young boy who loved sailing. He believed he would sail across the seas even he was a young boy.

On 4th May 1699, he set sail with Captain Prichard and crew. At first their voyage was a success. Then, he knew there was a danger waiting for him ahead. There were a lot of rocks straight in front of them. Gulliver shouted to the Captain to turn the ship starboard. They were stranded and the Captain made a difficult decision. He commanded to take the boats and search the land. They had to do so to avoid being stuck on those rocks forever. Six of the crew, including himself, tried to get clear of the ship and the rocks. They didn't give up and they bent over backwards to save themselves but it was useless. The waves were too strong.

"BANG! BANG!" Gulliver knew something went wrong. He washed up on a distant shore. He didn't know what had happened to his friends. He tried to walk and he managed to walk half a mile but he was not able to see any sign of houses or people. He shouted to see if there was anybody there. He shouted again and again for help. He was extremely tired and he dropped down on the grass. He fell asleep there.

When he woke up, it was daylight. He tried to rise but he was not able to get up easily. He realised that he was tied to the ground with thick ropes. He was confused who did that to him and what was going on there. He roared loudly in confusion.

- 16 Who was Lemuel Gulliver?
 A. A young boy who loves sailing
 B. The emperor of Lilliput
 C. The captain of the ship
 D. The crew of a ship
- 17 Who went sailing with Gulliver?
 A. Captain Prichard and his crew
 B. Emperor Lilliput and his soldiers
 C. Lemuel and Captain Prichard
 D. The crew of the ship
- 18 The phrase bent over backwards meant _____
 A. tried very hard to do something
 B. bent the body backwards
 C. helping others in a relaxed way
 D. tried to do something without working hard for it
- 19 Why was their hard work to clear the ship and the rocks become useless?
 A. They felt asleep together.
 B. The waves were as strong as Hercules.
 C. It rained heavily.
 D. They didn't have enough men to control the situation.

- 20 From the passage, we know that Gulliver _____
- A. was alone and confused about what had happened to him.
 - B. saw many people to help him after he was washed up on the shore
 - C. was tied to the tree near the shore
 - D. was able to rise when he woke up from sleep

Once there was an old tortoise named Piko. Piko lived on the grassland beside the pool. He was never satisfied with whatever he had.

One day, Piko felt quite bored. He saw a large eagle, Kino flying gracefully in the sky. Piko wished he could fly too. After a while, Kino came to take a rest on a rock beside the pool. Piko asked Kino, "Hi Kino. You can fly very well. Could you please teach me how to fly?"

Kino was astonished. "You do not have wings and feathers. How can you fly?" Piko pleaded again, "Please lend a hand. I am sure I can fly." Piko asked again and again. Finally Kino agreed.

Kino picked up Piko with his claws and they flew high in the sky. Then Kino let go of Piko and told him to flap his legs and fly. Piko flapped his legs as hard as he could but he fell like a stone into the bushes.

Piko was bruised and badly shaken but luckily he had no serious injuries.
